BACKGROUND

Description of Tafea Flag

The Tafea Province (former District of Banks Torres) flag is a light blue, a central horizontal stripe of yellow-red-yellow, five white stars, and a green canton, with a yellow cross and black shield.

Background of Tafea Province

TAFEA is the Southern Province of Vanuatu. The name is acronym for the five main islands that make up the province. These islands include Tanna, Aniwa, Futuna, Erromango and Aneityum.

There are other small outer islands, including the Goat Island, VeteManung Island and Inyeug Island. Two other remote islands, Matthew and Hunter are known by people of Aneityum Island as they are the rightful custom ownership of these islands.

The table below shows information of the 5 islands, main villages and related population of Tafea province.

Islands	Main village	Land area (km ²)	Population
Tanna	Leaked	565	28,799
Aiwa	Ikaokao	8	341
Futuna	Mohoun'gha	11	535
Erromango	Potnarvin	975	1,950
Aneityum	Anelgauhat	162	915

This table will help us identify target groups in terms of population and related issues affecting young people in those areas.

Geography:

According to the 2009 census, the province has a total population of 27, 530 people and covers an area of about 1, 628 km². Compared to every island in the Tafea Province, Tanna Island consists of about 80% of the total population with the provincial town, Lenakel, situated in the southwest coast.

Mission Statement:

Recognizing the TAFEA Province existing youth groups by working in collaboration with the government ministries, NGOs and other responsible youth authorities/organization. These will also enhance proper networking and enable young people to access all resources available within relevant youth organization and as well as other youth stakeholders.

Registration of all youth groups with the VNYC is a key principle for all TAFEA existing youth group in order to meet the specific objectives of the current youth policy implementation strategies.

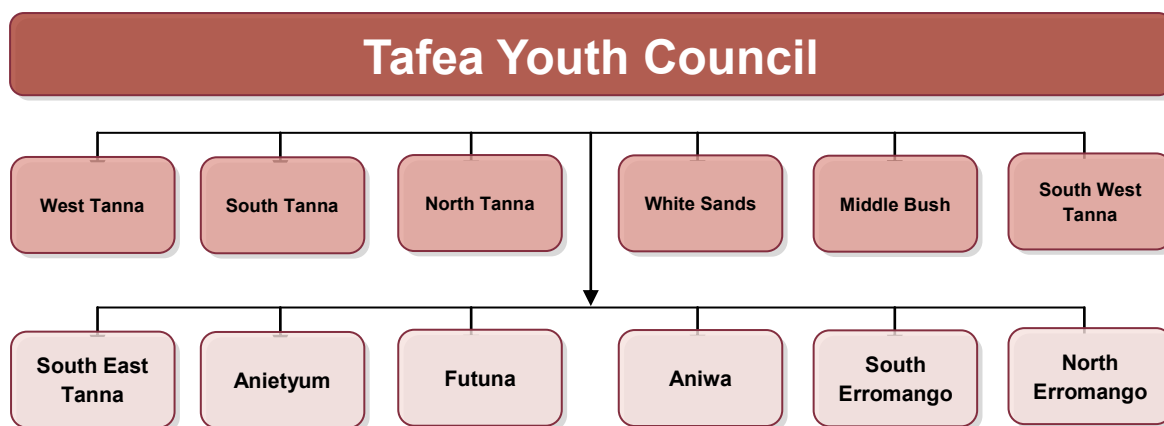

Goals:

To promote peace among young people through music, sports and other cultural activities.

To provide opportunities for young people to be able to participate/engage in income generating activities/projects.
